

Four Minutes Remain, 2009

The afflicted suffer their afflictions,
Body and Mind are one
Four minutes remain.

The artist makes tangible expression
Who says they're not the same?
The woman cradles a child
Her child?

The jackass spews his asinine bile
Man's inhumanity to everything
The heart gripped in war insane
The love the joy the loss the pain...

The afflicted suffer their afflictions,
Mind and Body are one
Four minutes always remain.
